

Hello My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

For all of you with children already back in school in essence you have already realized that summer is over. For me and many of us the heat reminds us it is still here. Yet I can't actually believe Labor Day is just around the corner and soon after comes fall. I'm amazed at how rapidly this year is passing by. I'm amazed at how rapidly life in general is passing by. Seasons come and seasons go as if they were just abbreviations of the real thing. So today I encourage you to just take a pause, take a deep breath, and reflect on what really matters to you. The world is in shambles and every moral thread of society seems to be unraveling.

What have we done and where does the future carry us at a pace much faster than we desire? We have a choice to become frozen in fear or victorious in faith. We could be overcome by circumstances or inspired by opportunities. The fact is life boils down to just a few things that we can focus on and this will help us to keep proper priorities in life. Those are Faith, Family, Friends, and in our country Freedom. I'm thankful for them all!! Let's make sure we are intentional and passionate about what matters. Love you all and see you Sunday as we continue to look at people whom God raised up to be Salt and Light in a world that turned away from God.
